I'm always looking forward to seeing what new shows are available on Netflix, and I've always been a big fan of crime drama's like Law & Order, NYPD Blue, Without a Trace, and now Criminal Minds. I know I'm late to the game, but I'm just now getting on board with Criminal Minds.

The first 6 seasons are available on instant-streaming, and I've been binge-watching to my lil hearts content. I'm half-way through people. So in honor of all that heavy drama, let's celebrate. Here's 10 Signs you might be watching too much Criminal Minds

1. You refer to your home as Quantico.

2. Someone asks you for directions, and you immediately look for a white van in the area.

3. Someone stole your lunch at work, and you refer to them as the "unsub".

4. Your mailman, bank teller, and grocery clerk all look suspicious.

5. You quote scholastic facts and haiku's in conversation. On the Regular.

6. Your voicemail outgoing message is: Give it up. talk to me.

7. Prior to running errands, you yell across your house, to family/friends, "wheel's up in 5!".

8. You have more computers on your desktop than NASA. (the wifi is killer!)

9. When your child, dog, or significant other makes a mess in the house, you investigate and backtrack through like a crime scene. Put gloves on before you pick-up that Gatorade Bottle!

10. Always working on a profile. And not your Facebook account.

What Netflix show is your Happy Place? Or do you prefer HULU? Either way, Let me know in the comments below, and maybe I will feature it in my next article.
