Market Forecast

Resident astrologer Kate Chadwick provides your planetary predictions with a particularly local twist

Aries (3/21-4/19): Go Aries—it's ya birthday. It's also the beginning of a new astrological year (yes, it's all about you). Shake things up a bit—without burning them down. Why not sign up for a league at Heyday Athletic and burn up some of that energy?

Taurus (4/20-5/20): It feels silly advising a Taurus to relax—you bulls have elevated relaxation to an art form. But you might want to tackle some of the clutter that's piled up. Then, schedule yourself a nice spa day at La Difference and commence chilling.

Gemini (5/21-6/20) There's no "i" in "team"—but there are two in "Gemini." Coincidence? No. You're always ahead of the pack, because hardly anyone can keep up with you. Work on collaboration this spring, like taking a jaunt with friends to Tilted Axes.

Cancer (6/21-7/22) Your crib is your crab castle, and it may be time to make the switch to working from home permanent if you haven't already. We're not talking laptop on the kitchen table here, but a designated home office; get to Giunta's Furniture for inspiration.

Leo (7/23-8/22) You have "the urge for going," majestic beast—boredom with where you are is firing up your wanderlust. Where to, though? Remember it doesn't always have to be glitzy destinations; try Opa Taverna for a taste of Greece without the hassle.

Virgo (8/23-9/22) You're stuck between working on that relationship (or cultivating a new one) and a desperate need for alone time. Luckily, galleries accommodate both scenarios. Head to Visual Expansion to feast your eyes—whether solo or à deux.

Libra (9/23-10/22) This spring is all about boundaries, lovely Libra. You need to set some limits, personally and professionally. Whether it's a date or a zoom, set a specific amount of time, then put on your Artistic Eyewear shades and jet.

Scorpio (10/23-11/22) You're all about the spring reboot, inside and out. But don't go overboard. As soon as it's a game of deprivation, you bail. Don't do "no sugar;" do "more veggies." And despite the name, Colonial Meat Market has a killer produce section.

Sagittarius (11/23-12/21) You're not just emerging from hibernation, archer friends—you're bursting forth. Let's get some head-turning outfits together, shall we? Phineas Gage is also bursting—with new spring arrivals. Get some.

Capricorn (12/22-1/19) You've been having an issue with a certain someone. Although you'd rather die than bring the drama, clearing the air is better than seething. Meet at Market Street Grill—it's always crowded enough that slightly raised voices go unnoticed.

Aquarius (1/20-2/18) Aries season always lights up your communication sector, water-bearer friends, so take that ball and run. Reconnect with out-of-hibernation friends over happy hour at Greystone Oyster Bar and listen as much as talk.

Pisces (2/19-3/20) Your mind's on your money this spring, dear Pisces. Since your car is one of your biggest investments, make sure it's in tip-top shape with a tune-up and schedule an appointment at DARE today.
