Market Forecast

Resident astrologer Kate Chadwick provides your planetary predictions with a particularly local twist

Aries (3/21-4/19): Gird your loins, ram friends, especially parents: work will be throwing up challenges and kids will have trouble adjusting to back to school. Plan a family outing, even if it's just a good walk around town and some Gemelli gelato.

Taurus (4/20-5/20): September appears to be one big lovefest, bullish ones: meeting a special someone if you're single, possible baby talk if you're partnered? Even if it's just a shower invitation, babies are on the horizon. Get thee to Tish, stat.

Gemini (5/21-6/20) Things are looking bumpy for September, twin stars—at least where other people are concerned. All the other people: partner, family, colleagues will test your patience. Schedule yourself a day to reset at Baldwin's Book Barn.

Cancer (6/21-7/22) All is calm in love and family under the present aspects, crab friends. Work will be ramped up a bit, but luckily, you're feeling good and healthy, too. Carry that beach body mentality momentum into the fall with some fitness classes at barre3.

Leo (7/23-8/22) You're rolling out of Leo season and into September with all signs pointing to "you," kitty cats, and that's your favorite. The universe wants you to seek advice from your elders this month; take a senior family member to Painted Plate and chat.

Virgo (8/23-9/22) We're heading into Mercury retrograde at the end of September, steadfast friends, so you'll want to keep your head down. No sudden movements or big changes at this time. Take it easy and order takeout; America's Pie always works.

Libra (9/23-10/22) Whether you're single, partnered, or parenting, the love game is strong in September, lovely Libra. Put your focus there. And if you're looking to meet someone, have a date night, OR a family outing, there's something for everyone at Uptown!

Scorpio (10/23-11/22) Slow and steady is your mantra this month, stealthy scorpions. Rise about the fray, as there will seemingly be turmoil all around, including some emotional outbursts. Yikes. Not your scene. Slip away to WC Public Library and hide.

Sagittarius (11/23-12/21) Curb your tongue, archer friends. This is a tall order, as you've got foot-in-mouth syndrome, but try. The first half of September looks testy, but remember: flowers soothe all ills, even for men. Put Flowers by the Greenery in your contacts.

Capricorn (12/22-1/19) Always climbing, industrious goat; your eyes are perpetually on the prize, especially in your career. The universe is asking you to step back and broaden your focus. Art gallery visits are just the ticket; start at Visual Expansion.

Aquarius (1/20-2/18) Stick close to home this month, Aquarius friends, and accept every invitation that comes your way. A special opportunity awaits among friends, whether it's love or money, who knows? Show up to brunch with sweets from Yori's Bakery!

Pisces (2/19-3/20) Someone you thought was in the past may boomerang back into your life this month, pesce pals. While this may not be a bad thing, do proceed with caution. A casual date at Mercato is a good way to test those waters.
