Market Forecast

Resident astrologer Kate Chadwick provides your planetary predictions with a particularly local twist

Aries (3/21-4/19): The stars are suggesting you get your act together this season: eating better, work-life balance, plenty of sleep—you know, grownup stuff. Start with new glasses at Artistic Eyewear. You'll want to clearly see how much ass you're gonna kick.

Taurus (4/20-5/20): Lean into a hobby you love this fall, bulls. You are the homebody-est of homebodies—maybe tap into your inner artiste and make something special at Painted Plate for your home. Solo project or make it a party? You decide.

Gemini (5/21-6/20) You're a gypsy at heart, twin star, but autumn will be all about home and family and you're hosting. Get your house in guest-ready condition with a heating tune-up from Sheller Oil and fall décor from Giunta's Furniture.

Cancer (6/21-7/22) Out and about is where you'll be this fall, crab friends, not just socially, but possibly for work...? Speaking and writing seem to be on the table, so make sure you dress to impress because all eyes will be on you. Hit refresh at Kaly.

Leo (7/23-8/22) Burning through money is your superpower, kitty-cats, in your quest to see and be seen. But your wallet can't keep up with your ego this fall. Swap out restaurants for groceries at Colonial Meat Market and shine in your own kitchen.

Virgo (8/23-9/22) You're all about service, Virgo, but the stars want you to put yourself first now. As independent as you are, that's not a problem. That confidence will be magnetic, so you may attract someone just picking up Wings to Go.

Libra (9/23-10/22) Lovelies: you've been running yourself into the ground. It's time to rest. Not just getting your zzzz's but getting centered and feeding your spirit. Whether that's yoga, meditation, or volunteering, get out of your own head.

Scorpio (10/23-11/22) You'll find yourself in many group activities this fall, Scorpions. Not your favorite, but keep your modern, mysterious, minimalist cool and you'll fly under the radar. Basic black and dark glasses from Phineas Gage and you're golden.

Sagittarius (11/23-12/21) You love to play, archer babes, but this fall, work is the focus. Is it overtime? Is it a promotion? Or will you chuck everything for a total career change? Keep your ears open for opportunity, even if you're just sitting at the bar at Avalon.

Capricorn (12/22-1/19) Your horizons will widen this fall, goat friends, whether that means international travel or an online course. Or it could be a complete overhaul for your look? Book a spa visit and vive La Difference.

Aquarius (1/20-2/18) Autumn is all about learning this year, water-bearers—you're like a sponge. Get to the library and check out books and media on psychology and/or self-help. Maybe open up a bit to the people who love you?

Pisces (2/19-3/20) It's snuggle time for you, fish friends. And you are ready. If you've got a significant other (or not), plan a little getaway. Budget issues? Visit a local park, throw down a blanket, and just look at those leaves.
