Hi [user:first_name],

If you or someone you know aspires to graduate from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, the Comeback Scholarship can help make it happen!

The scholarship offers the opportunity for re-entry students to receive up to $2,000 over their first two semesters upon returning to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

To qualify for the Comeback Scholarship, applicants must:

1. have previously been enrolled in a UL Lafayette degree program.
2. have earned at least 60 college credit hours.
3. meet University admission requirements for re-entry students.

Students must be enrolled to apply for the award. There are a limited number of scholarships available each semester.

Can't come to campus?

The University offers online degree programs ideal for those balancing other priorities – whether that's a full-time job, family, or both!

Complete your bachelor's degree in:

- Criminal Justice
- General Studies
- Health Promotion & Wellness
- Health Services Administration
- Marketing
- Management
- Sport Management

Our enrollment specialists will help guide you to the right path and stick with you until you walk across the stage as a #RaginGrad!
