PUT A Spring IN YOUR step

Better days are always ahead, so we may aswell dress the part now with Karen Millen

If you're sick to the teeth of the cold, long, often dark Winter days, we're right with you. There's only so many times you can look forward to putting on that same scarf and hat along with your puffa! If you're dying for the brighter, warmer days that seem so far away, look no further than the Karen Millen Spring Summer 2022 collection.

Aptly named The Power of You, become the most powerful, best version of yourself with this brand new wardrobe. Designed to appreciate the beauty of every day, this collection embraces all the vitality, sensuality and vigour the season has to offer. Take the new year by storm with vivid colours, unforgettable prints and boxy shoulders in a gorgeous leather jacket. Our limited edition leather celebrates life's uniqueness, while colour-pop tailoring encourages an optimistic outlook.

Clean, fluid silhouettes set the scene for a renewed state of mind, coupled with bold prints made for endless possibilities - the world could be your oyster with any of these beauties. The stunning imagery of the collection was captured at London's iconic Tate Modern, and its energy is mirrored in The Power of You collection as it inspires you to tell your story through standout pieces that embrace the art of style.

Whether worn alone or together, each piece in this collection is designed to work with you, and your life, beautifully. Elevate any occasion you attend with graphic stripes and dramatic florals, or layer up sleek separates and luxe knitwear for unexpected adventures. Heading to a party right after the beach? That's no problem! Spring and Summer days, full of sunshine, joy and light mean more time to play with, after all! Ultimately, The Power of You is all in the details. Mixing up textures bring edge to any outfit so look to artfully placed panels, faux-fur trims and our signature glossy hardware to finesse this season's mood.
