

GET WEDDING READY WITH

THOMAS SABO

When you're getting ready to walk down the aisle, it's all about the little details. Aside from the main, obvious components of getting dressed, it's made unique by a borrowed bag, a sentimental hair clip. It's those special parts of your outfit on the day that you go on to treasure forever.

If you're looking to select rare, special pieces for your big day, look no further than THOMAS SABO, the go to brand for bridal, wedding and bridesmaid jewellery. THOMAS SABO's high quality, ultra-detailed women's jewellery, handcrafted to the highest quality standards from 925 Sterling silver will ensure that you'll truly sparkle on your wedding day.

Iconic designs in their Pearls & Chains Collection and the Sparkling Heritage Collection will go with any look or outfit as they draw upon the nude classic trend for plain jewellery and white stones.

To find out more about the glittering treasures on offer, discover the collections online at www.thomassabo.com and in store today.
