

HOTEL OF THE MONTH, THE NETHERLANDS

For those 'wow' moments

Situated in Holland's Silicon Valley, within easy reach of Germany and Belgium, the Pullman Eindhoven Cocagne's combination of personal attention, well-considered detail and excellent facilities have been put together with one objective: to provide the very best. Their foremost priority is to provide an enjoyable integrated service to every guest, striving to add extra value to everyone's stay, whether they're organising a prestigious international conference or joining a loved one for an intimate weekend.

TEXT: CAROLE EDRICH | PHOTOS: ABACA CORPORATE-BARBARA ZONZIN

The up-and-coming city of Eindhoven may not be as famous as Brussels or Amsterdam for international guests, but the high-tech university and exciting high-tech industries – blossoming in and around the city – ensure the existence of a dynamic business and leisure atmosphere. Eindhoven is also a travel hub, accessible by road, rail or air for travellers from all over the world. Therefore it is ideally suited for residential international congresses and events.

Business and Service

Pullman Eindhoven Cocagne is an ideal meeting venue. The hotel's renowned Co-Meeting Concept service means that the hotel teams ease all the worry that you might encounter while organising your annual conference or residential meetings. With a dedicated Event Manager as a one-stop contact there to facilitate and anticipate each and every need, you can rest assured that your event will turn into a