Coach House Wellington

Dear John and Mary,

For residents of Coach House Wellington, the Palm Beach lifestyle is an amenity not be overlooked. Yes, our residence designs, rooftop pool and fitness center are extraordinary, but living here in South Florida is something very special.

For those who love arts and culture, the Palm Beaches is teeming with variety throughout the year. During the winter, you'll find top performers and artisans from around the world who display their talents at performance halls and exhibition centers throughout the area.

Do you prefer the sounds of the Tesla Quartet or the magic of Lin-Manuel Miranda in a live stage performance of Hamilton? Perhaps you prefer to view the sculptures of Jim Rennert or participate in a Candid Portraiture Workshop on Street Photography. Listen to the sounds of the New World Symphony or a lecture on Paris: The Unplanned & Planned Versions of a Great City.

The choices are endless and the Cultural Council of the Palm Beaches is an excellent resource for every type of event you can imagine. The best part is that they are all within a short drive of Coach House Wellington.

This is the season for Coach House Wellington to take center stage as well. Our Sales Gallery will be opening very soon, and we would love to see you in person. If there are any questions I can answer for you now, please let me know. Is there a time that works best for you?

Kind Regards,

Bill Clem
