To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Trisha Traughber for any position or project that requires exceptional writing, content creation, and project management skills.

Over the past four years, I have had the pleasure of working closely with Trisha in various capacities, witnessing first hand her remarkable dedication, creativity, and organizational prowess.

Trisha joined our team initially to help with Facebook posts. Her role quickly expanded due to her ability to grasp and deliver on our evolving content needs. Her contributions have been pivotal across a range of projects: creating blog posts, scripting YouTube videos, designing slide decks in Canva, managing newsletters, executing launches, conducting client surveys, and overseeing content project management.

Her clear and effective communication style has been instrumental in ensuring smooth operations, especially considering the remote and international make-up of our team. Trisha has a unique ability to coordinate with team members across different time zones and cultural backgrounds, ensuring everyone is aligned and contributing to our collective goals effectively.

Trisha's proactive approach to hitting our strategic objectives has made her an invaluable asset. She not only delivers high-quality work consistently but also anticipates needs and suggests improvements, demonstrating a level of engagement and commitment that goes beyond the typical scope of work.

In conclusion, Trisha's contributions have been invaluable to our team's success. Her blend of creative talent, strategic thinking, and impeccable project management skills make her an exceptional candidate for any role requiring top-tier content creation and management.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for further information about our experience working together.

Sincerely,
