WHAT'S NEW

Since the 2020 general election, redistricting may have changed the boundaries of your state legislative and U.S. congressional districts. As of press time, litigation over redistricting was ongoing.

Voters this year will be asked whether to adopt ranked choice voting and an open primary system, which would allow Nevadans to vote for their top candidates regardless of party affiliation. Voters already approved a ballot initiative to introduce the changes in 2022, but they must do so again for them to take effect.

Tribal voters who live on a colony or reservation in the state can use Nevada's Effective Absentee System for Elections to register to vote and to request and submit ballots.

WHAT ELSE YOU NEED TO KNOW

How can I register to vote?
The last day of regular registration by mail or in person is Tuesday, Oct. 8, but you may still register online through the close of polls on Election Day. Same-day registration is also available in person during early voting and on Election Day, with a valid Nevada ID and proof of residence.

Online: Go to registertovote.nv.gov. You must have a current, valid Nevada driver's license or ID card issued by the Nevada Department of Motor Vehicles.

By mail: Download a form at nvsos.gov/sosvoterregform or call your county clerk or registrar of voters to request one. To find contact information for your county clerk, go to nvsos.gov/sos/elections, click on Voter Information; under Miscellaneous Information, click on County Clerk Contact Information. Mail the completed form to your county clerk or registrar of voters' office.

In person: Register at your county clerk or registrar of voters' office, at any Nevada Department of Motor Vehicles office, on college campuses or at various social service agencies. Same-day registration is allowed if you vote in person at early voting locations or at your polling place on Election Day, but you must have a current, valid photo ID; if your ID does not have your current address, you will also need proof of residence, such as a bank statement, paycheck or utility bill.

How can I get a mail ballot?
Voters registered by Tuesday, Oct. 22, will automatically be sent a mail ballot, unless they opt out. If you register after that deadline, you'll need to vote in person.

How do I submit my mail ballot?
Mail your completed and signed ballot in the prepaid return envelope. It must be postmarked by Election Day and received by 5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9. Or you can hand-deliver your ballot to a drop box at your county clerk's office or a polling place in your county during early voting or by 7 p.m. on Election Day. For locations, visit nvsos.gov/sos/elections, hover over the Elections tab at the top of the page and click 2024 Voting Locations.

Where can I track my ballot?
Sign up at nevada.ballottrax.net/voter.

When is early in-person voting?
Saturday, Oct. 19, through Friday, Nov. 1, at early voting sites. Hours vary by county. Contact your county clerk for details.

When is Election Day?
Tuesday, Nov. 5. Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Find your polling place at nvsos.gov/votersearch.

Do I need ID to vote in person?
If you presented an acceptable ID when you registered, you won't need to show one when you vote at an early voting location or at the polls on Election Day. If you're in line by 7 p.m., you'll be allowed to vote.

What if I have a disability?
Voters with disabilities may vote absentee online through Nevada's Effective Absentee System for Elections. For more information on accessible voting in person, go to nvsos.gov/sos/elections, click on Voter Information and scroll down to Voters with Disabilities on the left.

What about military and overseas voters?
Go to nvsos.gov/sos/elections, click on Voter Information and find Uniformed and Overseas Voters. —Natalie Missakian

IMPORTANT: As of press time, election issues were still being contested in some states. AARP strongly recommends confirming details with the Nevada Secretary of State by visiting nvsos.gov/sos/elections—or calling that office at 775-684-5705—before submitting your ballot. You can also find updates at aarp.org/nvvotes or scan here for the state's election website.
