WHAT'S NEW

Litigation is ongoing over congressional redistricting maps from 2021 that were used in the 2022 election. The new districts changed the state's legislative and U.S. congressional district boundaries and may affect which candidates appear on your ballot.

WHAT ELSE YOU NEED TO KNOW

How can I register to vote?
Online: Go to vote.utah.gov and select Register to Vote or Update Registration. A valid Utah driver's license or state ID is required.
By mail or email: Complete a paper registration and mail it—or email a scanned copy—to your county clerk. To download a form, go to vote.utah.gov, scroll down and select Learn How to Register to Vote and then click on How Can I Register to Vote?
In person: Visit your county clerk's office. Find contact information on vote.utah.gov. Select Additional Resources for Voters and scroll down to Contact Your County Election Officials. You can also register when renewing or applying for a Utah driver's license or state ID.

The county clerk must receive your registration form by 5 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 25. If you miss the deadline, Utah offers same-day voter registration during early voting and on Election Day, but you'll need to vote with a provisional ballot and show two forms of ID—one a photo ID that verifies identity and the other showing proof of residence.

Find a list of acceptable IDs by going to vote.utah.gov/voter-id-requirements. If you have questions, contact your county clerk or the lieutenant governor's office, at elections@utah.gov or 801-538-1041.

How can I get a mail ballot?
If you're an active registered voter, you'll automatically receive a ballot in the mail. Confirm your status at vote.utah.gov by clicking on Find My Voter Registration Info.

If you haven't voted in the past two general elections or are otherwise deemed inactive, you'll need to update your information online or contact your county clerk's office.

How do I submit my mail ballot?
By mail: Ballots sent to your county clerk's office must be postmarked by Monday, Nov. 4. Instructions will come with your ballot. Postage is required, but some counties provide prepaid postage.
In person: Hand-deliver your ballot to your county clerk's office during business hours, or drop it off in a secure drop box or any voting location in your county by 8 p.m. on Election Day. To find drop box locations, check with your county clerk or visit vote.utah.gov and click on How Can I Vote?

Where can I track my absentee ballot?
At vote.utah.gov, click Track My Mail or Provisional Ballot. Or go to ballottrax.utah.gov.

Can I vote in person before Election Day?
Each county is required to hold at least four days of early voting, although some counties offer more. The early voting window begins Tuesday, Oct. 22, and ends Friday, Nov. 1. Contact your county clerk's office for details.

When is Election Day?
Tuesday, Nov. 5, with polls open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Polling places will be listed on your county clerk's website and under How Can I Vote? at vote.utah.gov. If you're in line before 8 p.m., you'll be allowed to vote.

Do I need ID to vote in person?
If you're already registered, you'll need to provide one valid primary form of photo ID that includes your name or two forms of ID that, when combined, prove your name and current address, such as a recent utility bill and a bank statement. For a list of acceptable IDs, go to vote.utah.gov and click on Additional Resources for Voters, then Learn About Voter ID Requirements.

What if I have a disability?
Go to vote.utah.gov, select Additional Resources for Voters and scroll down to Information for Voters With Disabilities.

What about military and overseas voters?
Go to vote.utah.gov, select Additional Resources for Voters and scroll down to Information for Military and Overseas Voters. Military and overseas voters have different procedures and deadlines for submitting absentee ballots. —Natalie Missakian

IMPORTANT: As of press time, election issues were still being contested in some states. Before voting, AARP strongly recommends confirming details at vote.utah.gov or by scanning the code to the right. You can also call the lieutenant governor's office at 801-538-1041.
