PACKAGE 01 · ELITE TIER

⚽ Premier Access

Your time stays yours from the moment you arrive.

The city is in chaos, but your stay will not be. No lobby delays, no check-in desk, no waiting on transport confirmations. Step into a private residence already prepared for your arrival. It'll be calm, polished, and fully in motion. Your attention stays where it belongs while everything else is handled quietly in the background.

Premier Access was designed for the guest who arrives with a full calendar and no interest in managing details. One morning begins with a chef-prepared brunch in your residence, while another evening unfolds over a private dinner that never requires reservations, crowds, or compromise. In between, curated local provisions are already in place, selected with your preferences in mind. Your match and dining guide are prepared in advance, considered and deliberate, so every recommendation feels intentional rather than decided in the moment.

Around the edges of your schedule, priority early check-in and late checkout ensure your time remains protected, while airport arrivals and departures are handled privately, so the week begins and ends smoothly. Every element is tailored ahead of time, then refined to ensure your experience exceeds expectations and reflects the level of service you are accustomed to — a bespoke stay where nothing is templated. Additional exclusive services across transport, wellness, photography, grooming, and cultural experiences remain available on request.

You leave with the rare sentiment that nothing needed fixing. The conversations happened, the relationships moved forward, and not a single distraction diluted your time. Everything worked in unison, and you left exactly as you arrived — effortlessly.

Starting at $60,000 (before taxes & fees) · Groups of 4–8 · 4-night minimum

PACKAGE 02 · EXECUTIVE TIER

🏆 Private Estate VIP

Your guests will feel the difference before they say a word.

Your guests arrive and the setting holds its own without explanation. The room is composed, and a luxury spirits welcome is already in place, reinforcing an atmosphere that feels considered and complete. With everything prepared, you can remain present with your guests as the week unfolds.

Private Estate VIP is for the host whose level of expectation is reflected in every detail — a bespoke hosting stay built around your guests, your style, and your standard. Four private SUV transfers manage each arrival and departure with precision, so your guests are received and seen to without delay. We protect your schedule with priority early check-in and late checkout, allowing the week to begin and end without pressure. A dedicated concierge oversees the flow of your stay, as on-site security operates discreetly, maintaining the exclusive atmosphere your guests step into. Housekeeping sustains the residence, preserving a standard that remains consistent.

On match days, transport is taken care of, removing the need for coordination. Complement your days with refined, chef-led brunches and private dinners that shape the rhythm of the week, creating moments your guests settle into comfortably. Meanwhile, the residence allows for intimate gatherings and curated evenings that come together naturally.

Additional services across transport, wellness, photography, cultural experiences, AV, hosting support, grooming, and extended security remain available on request.

When your time with us concludes, you know your guests were part of something singular. What remains is the impression you created. Understated, effortless, and entirely yours. Present a tailored experience your guests will continue to reference long after the week has ended.

Starting at $80,000 (before taxes & fees) · Groups of 4–6 · 5-night minimum

PACKAGE 03 · ULTRA TIER

💎 Signature Luxe Collection

Everything is already in motion. Your only job is to be present.

Step inside and you're at ease immediately. The residence feels familiar without introduction. There is no transition and no need to orient yourself. The week is already underway, and it moves forward without disruption.

Signature Luxe Collection is reserved for the principal who wants everything handled with care, at a level that is unmistakably bespoke. Movement throughout the week is fully supported, from airport transitions to on-demand transport, allowing you and your guests to move freely as plans evolve. All of your meals, from brunch to dinner, are thoughtfully arranged across your stay by expert chefs, including an exclusive, fully catered private watch experience within the residence. You get to take in match day energy without stepping into the crowd. Pair this with a fully prepared welcome and premium bar setup that is ready from the outset. The week fulfills its structure without needing oversight, and each element is delivered at the level you are accustomed to.

Receive devoted, white-glove service from a dedicated team that remains on call while ensuring continuity without presence. Every detail is maintained to the same rarefied standard, without variation.

Additional services across wellness, photography, cultural experiences, dining, entertainment, and extended security remain available on request.

You return home having never needed to think about how any of it came together. The days went smoothly, your guests settled in without hesitation, and nothing required your attention unless it mattered. What remains is the sense that this experience was one-of-one — and everything was right from the start.

Curated Splendor provides private, bespoke, fully managed World Cup hosting in Atlanta for principals, executives, and UHNW clients.

Our work is centered on control of time, environment, and execution. We secure the residence and the full service layer behind it, including transport, security, culinary, and concierge, delivered through a single, coordinated system.

We recognize that our clients are not looking for recommendations or real-time adjustments. Everything is secured, structured, and fully in place before they arrive, with no gaps once they are in residence. Often hosting within a compressed, high-demand window, the expectation isn't access, but certainty. With time protected and the environment controlled, guests feel the difference immediately, without explanation.

No visible logistics.

No reliance on public infrastructure.

No compromise in how the week unfolds.

Each engagement is handled directly and built through a discovery process.

If you plan to be in Atlanta for the World Cup, we can walk you through how Curated Splendor delivers an exclusive experience at this level.
