North Cobb Christian's Christina Surcey was named the Class AA Girls Player of the Year after winning the individual state title.

Fifteen Cobb County golfers earned all-state distinction from the Georgia High School Golf Coaches Association for the 2024 season.

North Cobb Christian's Christina Surcey and Mount Paran Christian's Brody McQueen headlined the awards, taking home the Class AA girls and boys player of the year awards, respectively.

Surcey dominated the Class AA girls state tournament, shooting 11-under par and winning the individual competition by eight strokes. It was her third tournament win of the season in three tries.

Mount Paran's Kyra Friess joined Surcey on the girls Class AA all-state team after helping lead her team to a third place finish at state.

McQueen and Alden Hudson, who shot a final round 64 to win the boys individual title, were part of a Mount Paran team which shot 23-under on the second day and ran away with the team title.

Teammates Sam Binkley, Lee Smith and Bryer Cale all joined McQueen and Hudson on the all-state team

Walker's Sam Miller and Jack Raabe also earned all-state honors in Class AA after helping the Wolverines to a second-place finish behind Mount Paran. The Wolverines also saw Jonah Douglas earn all-state honorable mention honors.

The Harrison boys had two players earn Class AAAAAAA all-state honors, with Kaiden Drum on the first team and Zach Light an honorable mention.

Walton's Saanvi Ventkatesh and Annika Gomeyak earned Class AAAAAAA all-state honors for helping the Raiders place second in the state tournament, while Whitefield Academy's Elizabeth Morris earned all-state honors in Class A Division I.
