Nuclear Medicine/PET Imaging Department Earns Accreditation

Congratulations to the Nuclear Medicine/PET Imaging department, which has been awarded a three-year term of accreditation in Nuclear Medicine by the American College of Radiology (ACR).

This is the second time the department has received this accreditation, which demonstrates that the department's staff and equipment have passed the ACR's rigorous evaluation. It shows patients, visitors and supporters that the department has undergone a meticulous review process and meets nationally accepted standards of care. This recognition of commitment to high practice standards, quality care and patient safety sets Hillcrest Hospital apart from the competition.

Board-certified physicians and medical physicists, who are experts in the field, assessed and evaluated the qualifications of the Nuclear Medicine/PET Imaging department's personnel and the
