15 Professionals Awarded the Certified Pharmacy Benefits Specialist Designation by the Pharmacy Benefit Institute of America

NEWS PROVIDED BY
Pharmacy Benefit Institute of America (PBIA)
September 1, 2022, 09:00 ET

LAS VEGAS, September 1, 2022 /EIN Presswire/ -- The Pharmacy Benefit Institute of America (PBIA) has announced the names of 15 dedicated professionals who recently completed its Certified Pharmacy Benefits Specialist program, earning the CPBS designation.

In this announcement, the Certified Pharmacy Benefits Specialist program honors the exceptionally high achievement of two distinguished program participants:

Prerna Goyal (CPBS, M.Phil, M.B.A.): Prerna's final program score was 98%, meaning she ranked #1 overall.

Richard Crews: Richard achieved the highest final exam score at 90% (before the curve).

Following is the complete list of the 15 distinguished professionals who were recently awarded the CPBS designation:

Lauren Hankins

Richard Crews

Marc Harder

Colton Storla, CPBS, GBDS, Employee Benefits Advisor

Prerna Goyal (CPBS, M.Phil, M.B.A)

Matthew J. Morinello

Corey Biscoglia

Ashley T.

Brandon Mills

Barbara Kelly

Jon Schmidt

Lauren Smith

Darrell Meador

Sean Fitzsimmons

John K.

The CPBS (Certified Pharmacy Benefits Specialist) program is a specialized pharmacy benefits management program administered by the Pharmacy Benefit Institute of America (PBIA). The PBIA educates and elevates consultants, brokers, and finance and HR professionals in the pharmacy industry, making their relationships with pharmacy benefits managers (PBMs) stronger.

“It has been a blast taking your class and [I] truly am learning and continuing to watch and absorb all the information you have thrown our way. Hopefully, I will continue on today to pass this course but either way you are awesome, your teachings are educational and [I] hope to work with you again.” – Brandon Mills, RHU®, REBC, CHRS Vice President

“Thank you so much for the opportunity to learn from you during this certification course. It's been eye opening and transforming! … Thank you for your time and education, Tyrone!” -- Lauren Hankins Senior Director, Partnerships, Integrated Benefit Solutions, GoodRx

SOURCE Pharmacy Benefit Institute of America (PBIA)