Workflows for every content type

Pick detailed workflows for any content type and channel — fully vetted by industry veterans.

Automatic access control for assets

Forget the “request for access” screen. Your team always has access to every asset in their Workspace.

All your work in one searchable place

In a click, filter, search, and view all your projects. See where things are at and who's working on what.

One tab to rule them all

Visualise your content workflow in the board view

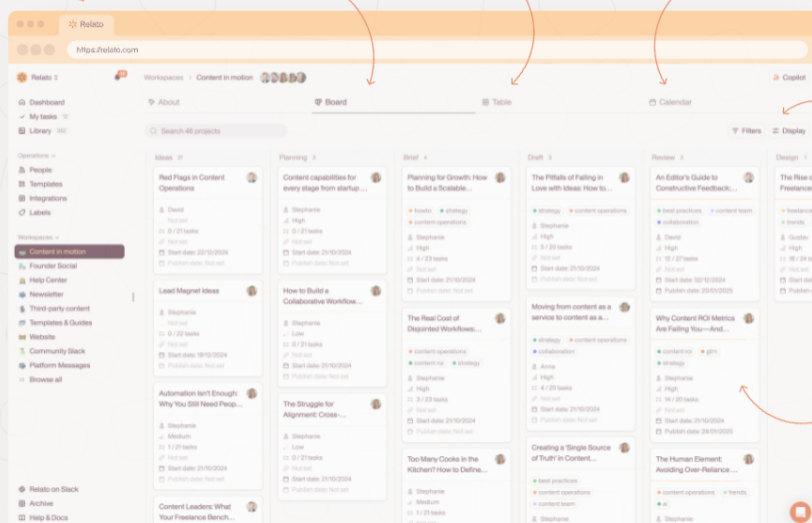

Manage your content inventory in the table view

Plan ahead with the content calendar

Bring your content strategy to life with workspaces

Focus on what's important with filters and search

Keep your projects on track, with custom fields

Pick a workflow

Choose one of several detailed workflows we've pre-built for you, or use your own custom one.

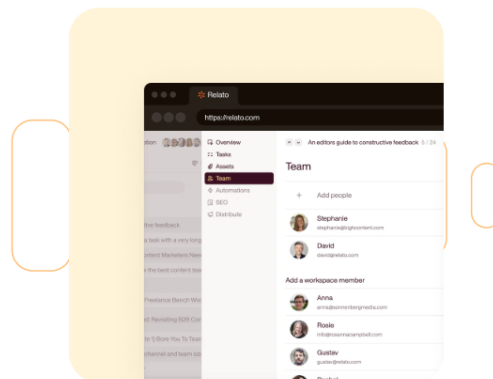

With built-in tasks, fields, and approval steps, your team doesn't need to think about the tedious details every time they start a new project.

From an idea to the published piece, every project stays in one place and nothing falls through the cracks.

Add your team

Quickly add the people from your organization—or anyone outside of it—into the workspace.

Every project, asset, or document used in this workspace will be automatically shared with them. No need to manually share anything.

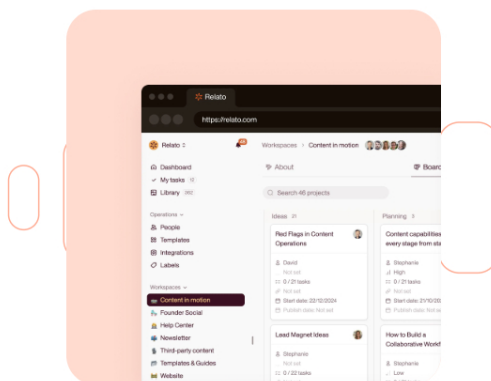

Get to work

Spin up new content projects in one click, and start making real progress with your team.

With smart automations enabled, you can hand off even more tedious details to Relato.

We'll pre-fill assignees and fields, and auto-complete the tasks to save you the clicking.
