

WANT TO LOVE BETTER?

It's one thing to marry, it's another to keep the love alive over decades.

Longtime-married couples have much to teach other couples, married or not, but perhaps even more to teach people starting on their marriage journey.

Family Theater Productions, which brought you Catholic Central, PRAY: THE STORY OF PATRICK PEYTON and The Dating Project debuts a new YouTube series that visits with long-term spouses offering advice and encouragement on keeping their vows truly "until death do us part."

We encourage couples watching this series to look at themselves, in both their joys and sorrows, as working together towards better communication, authenticity, and intimacy.

Let's learn from the couples in this series how to better love.

LASTING MARRIAGES: I DO...AND I STILL DO premieres on our YouTube channel on Tuesday, Jan. 23.
