CONDUENT

The digital universe is rapidly expanding... so is the volume and complexity of data.

Zero in on what matters most.

Flexibility, scalability and automation will take you far in eDiscovery process management — and they're at the heart of Conduent's eDiscovery solutions.

Viewpoint eDiscovery

Viewpoint delivers a flexible approach to legal and compliance document review, with analysis designed to help manage litigation, investigations, and compliance matters, end-to-end, while addressing the complexities of today's global electronic discovery landscape. Viewpoint provides flexibility and scalability to manage eDiscovery in the ways that work best for each organization's unique requirements and caseload.

Digital Forensic Services

One of the greatest challenges our clients face when collecting data from their custodians is finding a cost-effective solution within tight timeframes. To add another layer to this pain, custodians are typically spread across the country or even the world. Conduent Digital Forensic Services can accommodate these projects leveraging our in-house and trusted partner expertise, global footprint and flexibility while maintaining cost efficiency, and defensibility.

Global Managed Document Review

Scalable, defensible managed review services can augment and streamline your corporate legal department while reducing review costs. Combine that with a best practice approach, sophisticated technology, and tailored services and you've got the right combination to give you an edge in litigation strategy. Our expert legal teams provide rapid response, high-volume document review, and analysis services. When you work with our managed review experts, you gain access to a bench of thousands of professionals located in key locations around the globe.
