

District Descriptions

Downtown	Yeah, Downtown is pricey, but it's so convenient being within walking distance of all your jobs.
The Strip	They always make movies about bad people overindulging here. I should know, I watched them all back-to-back.
Boardwalk	They keep changing the theme parks here. Worst one I went to was Veganville. I mean, fennel cakes? Why?
Jacinto Square	This is a great neighborhood if you're a dog person, or any hybrid that emerged from the nuclear incident.
Emerald Dunes	I always wanted to live here, but they wouldn't allow any fixer-uppers. And they meant me, personally.
Midtown	I hope you like mega huge skyscrapers - all thanks to big pharma and their high buildings.

Central City	You're gonna love the tech here, it's like living in the cloud. Which is kinda why the rent is sky-high.
West of the Park	Welcome to this side of the park! It used to be the middle of a bigger park, but, y'know, climate change.
Outskirts	Best thing about the outskirts? No restaurant chains. You can leave in the middle of a meal!
The Bridge	I grew up here, before they moved the whole place closer to the city. In my day it was a Bridge too far.
The Boroughs	Hey, this place has the best pizza by the slice and, if you're vegetarian, the best broccoli by the floret.
Glitter Marina	You're gonna run into a lot of fake people here. Seriously, the mannequins in the fashion stores outnumber us.
