OVERVIEW SHIPPING

Any Wild Turkey barrel is an excellent choice for aging any beer, cider, mead or other beverage, but these Russell's Reserve Bourbon Single Barrels straight from the distillery offer a premium-level opportunity.

Bourbon aged in these heavily “alligator” charred oak barrels anywhere from 8-16+ years. The bourbon emptied from these hand-selected barrels is carefully picked by distillers.

Older bourbon barrels offer more nuanced flavors with deep character, as opposed to the intense, vibrant profile of younger bourbon. Expect to add spicy, bold flavors to aged beverages, including creamy toffee, licorice and vanilla.

Mash Bill
- 75% corn
- 13% rye
- 12% barley

Note: Most Russell's Reserve Bourbon Single Barrels were filled in 2014, but some may be older.
