Stingray Sushi: A great place for late night eats - Phoenix Examiner (AZ) - July 20, 2010

July 20, 2010 | Phoenix Examiner (AZ) | Allison Hamila

Everyone has been there; maybe they go to a 7 o'clock movie with a date and after two and half hours come out completely starving. However, it can be difficult to find food after 9pm, especially if you plan on making your way out to Old Town later in the night. Good thing there is Stingray Sushi. Stingray is not only a great place for happy hour; it's also one of the best places to grab yourself an appetizer before you hit up the rest of the Old Town scene. Stingray, not only serves food everyday until Midnight, but also drinks every night of the week until last call.

Besides the food, Stingray is also a great atmosphere to be in. As you waltz into Stingray you will immediately notice your feet stepping on the underground fish tank and the vibe created by the chic Asian décor. The bartenders are always friendly and the specialty cocktails are priced just right even when happy hour expires.

Make your way to Stingray with a date, a group of friends, or even fly solo. Have a few spring rolls and wash it all down with the Kiwi Collins cocktail, a yummy mix of Bombay Sapphire and kiwi liqueur. Stingray will satisfy your hunger pangs and thirst for an intermediary stop in between that movie and the rest of your evening.
