Industrial Automation Solutions (IAS)

In partnership with SIEMENS Digital Industries (DI)

Connecting real-world automation and controls through data-driven industrial digitalization.

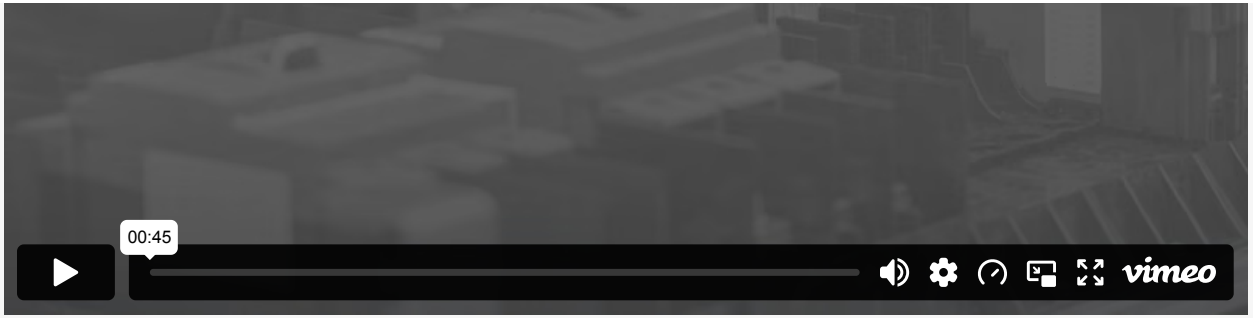

Solve real-world problems before they arise with IAS. Design, build, and improve industrial automation and control systems, so they run better and are easier to manage from start to finish. Integrate digital software, systems, and data to deliver advanced smart manufacturing solutions right to you — driving innovation and increasing productivity regardless of location.

IAS & CES One-Line Service

CES One-Line brings power and distributes it throughout the building. With IAS, we can now control what we're bringing power to — supplying everything from panelboards, switchboards, MCCs, and SCADA systems. This expands our capabilities as it offers our customers a broader range of services.
