It's the OES Book Fair - and YOU'RE INVITED!

TOMORROW – March 4 from 5 to 8 p.m.
or, shop online at Oakton Book Fair

Are your bookshelves at home overflowing?

Clear space for all the new books you'll purchase at the fair by bringing your gently used books (all ages accepted) and dropping them in the box marked "NVFS." They will be used to benefit Northern Virginia Family Service, a local nonprofit dedicated to permanently lifting families and children out of poverty. Visit http://www.nvfs.org/ for more information.

Second Annual

OES SCHOOL-WIDE ART SHOW & PICTURE FRAME FUNDRAISER

OES Gym

Tomorrow – March 4 from 6:30–8:30 p.m.
(Same night as OES Book Fair)

Come out to admire the hard work your young artist has done this year! Every student will have one piece of artwork on display.

Picture frames are available for sale during the art show. $25 per frame.
Sales support the Oakton Elementary Art Department.

Payments by check only please. Make checks payable to Oakton Elementary PTA.

The show includes interactive QR codes that reveal student artist statements and informative videos, as well as access to March Art Madness – a voting poll on our favorite artworks of the year.

If parents or family members want to access the interactive QR codes or the poll, they can download a QR code app such as QR Reader (available for free).

So mark your calendars for TOMORROW, March 4, and come out to the OES Book Fair & Art Show.

Attend both events and return home with art AND books for the entire family to enjoy!
