WHAT MAKES RHEMA SO UNIQUE?

Rhema is a community like no other! It's more than a school; it's a place to open up your life to all God has for you.

Everywhere you walk on campus, you'll sense the presence of the Holy Spirit.

You'll be surrounded by people full of faith and passion for the Lord.

You'll learn to rely on God's Word and engage in practical ministry and supernatural training that equips you for your calling.

More than anything, Rhema is a family that stands with you as you prepare to fulfill God's plan for your life.

Here, you'll build strong faith and a strong foundation - so you can have a strong, successful future, no matter where He takes you next.

"Rhema is unique because it's not just a school, it's a place of obedience and transformation. You're not just taught the Word; you're taught how to live it. It pushes you to trust God fully, walk by faith daily, and step boldly into the calling He has on your life." –Ruth

"Seeing the teachers teach with so much passion has made me fall even more in love with the Bible." –Nuria

"I love all the wisdom and the hearts that are poured out to us in each class." –Jordan

'CHOSEN OF THE LORD, CALLED OF GOD, EQUIPPED BY HIS SPIRIT'

At the heart of everything Rhema does, you'll find a powerful, God-given mandate: "Go teach My people faith."

When the Lord first spoke these words to Rhema's founder, Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin, they resonated deep in his heart. During years of traveling in ministry, he'd seen firsthand how faith in God transformed lives. He spent many days and nights crying out to God, "How can I get this message of faith out to Your people?"

The answer became clear: he would have to train men and women who were just as passionate about God's Word as he was. In 1974, Rhema Bible Training College - built on faith, God's Word, love, and the power of the Holy Spirit - opened its doors. A year later, its first graduating class of 58 students went out into the world to make a difference.

Today, the mandate to teach God's people faith continues. RBTC President Kenneth W. Hagin, Director Lynette Hagin, and instructor Denise Hagin Burns carry this God-given assignment forward. Together, they continue to provide Spirit-led leadership. Rhema USA has graduates numbering in the tens of thousands who are reaching the world, carrying with them the skills, biblical knowledge, and character they gained while studying here.

As a student, you can share in this meaningful legacy. You can become a member of our world-changing Rhema family!

GROUNDING IN BIBLICAL FUNDAMENTALS

As a student at Rhema, you'll develop a solid foundation of faith. You'll be enabled to fulfill your call with grace, truth, and power. God may be calling you to minister full time, volunteer at church, raise a godly family, serve in your community, or succeed at work. Whatever He puts on your heart, everybody has a place here!

In your first two years at RBTC, you'll learn to live by faith, build a solid foundation for studying God's Word, and acquire practical leadership and service skills for every area of life. Then you can choose from a variety of third-year programs to specialize in the area you are led to pursue. You can even expand those into fourth-year programs, which would qualify you for a biblical bachelor's degree.

You will learn how to hear God's voice and recognize His leadings. And you'll also receive targeted training that strengthens you as a believer and equips you to fulfill everything God has called you to do.

Pursuing God's plan for your life is priceless, but your education for it doesn't have to be costly.

Rhema Bible Training College is purposely affordable. That's especially true compared with other Bible schools and traditional colleges. All our students pay less than one-third of what it actually costs to attend. Tuition includes your courses, books, fees, a campus gym membership, the student yearbook, and parking permits.

The remaining 70 percent of your education is covered by a scholarship funded by our partners, alumni, and donors. They want to see passionate Christ-followers like you fulfill your calling. There are no complicated financial forms and no education loans to apply for. You simply receive a solid spiritual education at a reasonable cost.
