

2025 AI Journalism Labs

Embark on a journey of innovation!

Join our innovative 3-month hybrid, tuition-free AI Journalism Labs, designed for journalists eager to learn about generative AI.

Developed by J+ at the Craig Newmark Graduate School of Journalism at CUNY with support from Microsoft, these programs blend theory and practice, equipping you with the skills to use generative AI in your work, formulate AI strategies and shape the future of AI and journalism.
